

POLITICIANS AT COUNTY SEAT ARE MUCH DISTURBED

Elements That Seek to Control J. K. Tener's Appointment Disappointed.

REFUSES TO BE A BOSS

Places He Has Already Filled Are in the Interests of Public Service.

Notwithstanding there is only one office of importance to contest for in the Republican nominations in the county at the primary election in June, that of county recorder, the proverbial political pot is boiling fiercely at the county seat. It is not so much the result of the coming campaign that concerns the Washington politicians, as it is what may come later. Those who have been accustomed to having a finger in manipulating political affairs, naming slates and parceling out party patronage are, figuratively speaking, "up in the air." They want to be in the push and control things all right, but under present conditions they find themselves utterly powerless, and all attempts at getting a hard and fast "organization" has met with failure. Various combinations have been proposed and tried, but without avail. Those who want to make the combinations have nothing to offer in the way of patronage, and this is what makes them extremely sad.

In the good old palmy days, when E. F. Acheson was in the saddle, with all the postoffices and census enumerators to give out with a few rubs on the side and no troublesome primaries with a popular vote for the people to "butt in," it was a pleasure to play the political game. But now things are different. There isn't any "organization," and what's more there isn't likely to be one, except the formal and perfunctory party organization each year for the purpose of conducting the campaign which dissolves as soon as the ballots are cast. But now, with Hon. J. K. Tener in Congress, and with all the appointive power in his own hands, the condition is really aggravating. Mr. Tener has resolutely refused to play ward politics.

More than that what few appointments he has already made have been in the interest of public service and in accordance with the wish of a majority of the people directly concerned. He refuses to play appointments against the personal ambitions of the ward politicians, and consequently there is sorrow in camp.

A desperate effort has been made to use the contest for recorder for personal ends. The different candidates for the Republican nominations have been worked upon, but without results. Each one is exceedingly wary of entering into proffered deals for support, knowing full well that it is not within the power of any person or faction to "deliver the goods." The real bone of contention is said to be the postoffice at Washington and the appointment to the controllership of the county, in case the bill providing for such an office now before the Legislature, becomes a law. This is why there is so much wire-pulling at the present time, but the indications are that there will be "nothing doing"

by those who are particularly desirous of dispensing this patronage.

As for the nomination for recorder, the respective candidates for that position know full well that they must fight it out on their own merits, and that no deals can be made that will materially aid them. Congressman J. K. Tener is impervious to any of the appeals or threats made to compel him to use his appointments for these ends. He knows, and the politicians know also, that the people are with him, and that any attempt to put up a fight would meet with summary defeat.

HOUSE BLOWN OVER HILL AND IS MASS OF RUINS

Brownsville Structure Could Not Withstand Wind and Totters Over Proclivity.

FAMILY LOSES GOODS

A two story frame house near Green Lane, South Brownsville was destroyed yesterday afternoon, by being blown from its foundations and toppling over a steep embankment. The house is now a mass of ruins.

The building was occupied by the family of James Carpenter. During the afternoon gale it was lifted and taken by the wind to the edge of the declivity where it was hurled over, falling a distance of 25 feet. The old one. The furnishings will be a complete loss however. It so happened that none of the Carpenter family were in the place at the time and thus escaped.

LOOKING FOR MISSING MAN

J. L. Edwards of Belsano, Cambria county, and T. L. Edwards, of Indiana, Pa., were in Monongahela and other valley places yesterday looking for their brother, Edward L. Edwards of Jeannette, who disappeared from Morgantown, W. Va., March 3. The missing man was 59 years of age, feet 7 or 8 inches in height, of medium build, and weighed about 140 pounds. The brothers and family are anxious to learn of his whereabouts. They are seeking the aid of the police in the different towns visited.

BONDS ISSUED FOR $100,000

Extensive Improvements Will be Made this Year by the County, And Money is Needed

TOTAL 6 YEARS $520,000

The county road improvement is to go ahead this year. The commissioners have just sold $100,000 four per cent road improvement bonds to the N. W. Harris company, of New York. As this company must pay the State tax of four mills the bonds will yield their holders three and six tenths per cent net.

With the proceeds of these bonds the commissioners will build a number of roads which have been approved by the grand jury and the court. These roads will be sold soon.

This is the third year of commissioners in succession which has issued road bonds under the provisions of the Act of 189 and amendments thereto which permit commissioners to issue bonds to the extent of one-tenth of one per cent of the total valuation of property in the county for county purposes.

The amount of bonds issued each year is as follows:

In 1904, $80,000; 1905, $100,000; 1906, $60,000; 1907, $100,000; 1908, $100,000; 1909, $100,000; total, $520,000.

With the money from previous bonds issues, the county has made a good start in the improvement of roads. About eight miles of road can be built with the proceeds of the new issue, and that this is a good thing, as the county has as many of the roads in bad condition as it has in good.

Pollock.

Helen Wilson Pollock, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pollock of 402 Lookout avenue, died at 1 o'clock this afternoon, aged 13 years. The little girl has been sick for sometime of typhoid fever and was very near death's door a week ago, but she rallied and it was thought for a time that she was out of danger. A relapse came this morning, and it was seen there was no hope for her. The parents and three brothers survive. The latter are Percy D., Charles and John. ## SHOCK OF 2300 VOLTS

Bell Lineman Gets Full Force of Heavy Current but Still Lives.—Was Badly Burned.

IT HAPPENED YESTERDAY

C. S. Gottshalk, of Monongahela, a lineman employed by the Bell Telephone company here yesterday, received a shock of 2,300 volts of electricity, enough to kill most men, but outside of a number of burns over the body he is feeling as well as ever today.

The accident happened at the corner of Fourth street and Fallowfield avenue, where Gottshalk was repairing some lines that had become crossed with the West Penn company lines. In some way he happened to grasp the West Penn line, establishing a circuit, and received the full force of the West Penn current, 2,300 volts. He hung on to his place like grim death, and was finally rescued. His legs and arms were burned over a large surface.

These flowers of whatever nature will be used to decorate the church and the entire spirit of the service will be the hope of the resurrection as typified at this Easter season.

Velma, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Jones of Fallowfield avenue, had a narrow escape from burning to death this morning. not discovered until after they had gained considerable headway, and there was no chance of saving the building. Some of the goods of the inmates were recovered. The origin is unknown.

FIRE CATCHES FROM SPARKS

Engine on M. & W. Branch Causes Conflagration at Scenery Hill.

Sparks from a passing engine on the Monongahela and Washington railroad yesterday set fire to a pile of brush about two miles from Scenery Hill and before the fire could be extinguished had reached the tall grass surrounding the Iams farm, owned by the Ellsworth Collieries company.

Twenty acres of finely wooded property was destroyed before the flames had spent themselves. The fact that the fire reached a plowed field saved the farm house of Thomas Van Voorhis. It is thought that the loss of lumber and fence will amount to several thousand dollars.

Trolley Company Suffers From Breaking Down Of Line.

PEOPLE ARE INJURED

Wind in Exceptional Cases Picks Up Persons and Carries Them Distance.

Western Pennsylvania was at the mercy of the winds yesterday, and trolley, telephone, and telegraph lines suffered, causing the people much inconvenience. In Pittsburgh and other larger cities several people were hurt in various ways caused indirectly from the wind, and the terrific hurricane. In exceptional cases, persons were picked up, carried a short distance, and severely injured by the drop.

Charleroi people suffered most from the inconvenience caused by damage to the Pittsburgh-Charleroi trolley line. From about noon until after 6 o'clock cars could not run on schedule time, owing to the high tension wires coming down, and breaks in the line. During the afternoon there were five breaks in the high tension line, the first one being at 12:05, and continuing until 12:15, the second from 1:47 until 2:00, the third from 3:10 to 3:20, the fourth from 3:40 until 3:50, and the fifth from 4:15 until 5:55. All these breaks were in the main line and near the power house at Rankin.

From 4:15 until 6:45 there was extra trouble on this end, between Riverview and Library Avenue, grounded during the time.

the wind, and this morning more breaks occurred. At Eldora a break held the cars for sometime. There was practically no service from 5:30 until 8 o'clock this morning.

The Charleroi Telephone lines were blown down along the valley and connection was severed with Brownsville, California and Pittsburgh, and practically all valley towns.

With the Bell company the effect of the high winds was that connection was practically severed with nearly all valley points. The time of the breaking of the wires was about noon.

The West Penn electric company withstood the shock, as regards their individual wires, but they suffered more or less interference all over the system by the falling of lighter wires on their heavier ones, and this caused the lack of schedule time in the running of the West Side cars.

Endorsed by The People.

Congressman J. K. Tener's policy of making politician appointments in the interest of the public service will be most heartily endorsed by the people who so overwhelmingly elected him. From the time of his induction into office Mr. Tener has announced that all appointments within his jurisdiction would be made with a view of satisfying a majority of the people who are directly concerned. In carrying out this policy he cannot go wrong with his constituents. He may not satisfy all of the ward politicians who want to control this patronage for their own ends, but he is fulfilling the true mission of his office by seeking to serve the people instead of the petty politicians.

With the popular vote at the primary election it is no longer possible to build up an organization in Washington county that can dictate party affairs, slate candidates and elect them. Those who are trying to do that do not realize that they are in the "has been" class. They are typical of the old bourgeois of France—"have learned nothing, and forgotten nothing." Bossism has received its death blow in this county, and all attempts to revive it are doomed to ignominious failure. The people rue now.

Indecent Drama.

It is because there is in New York so large a public ready for decadent drama that certain theatrical managers, themselves living solely in the bohemian atmosphere of the Tenderloin, are so ready and willing to furnish such fare, writes Walter Pritchard Dunn in Success Magazine. And since the control of almost all the theatres in the country is now vested in these New York managers, since the local theatre managers are but juniors, having to take whatever plays are sent them, the fetid obscenities of these Tenderloin producers are awarded the best bookings on the road, and the salacious acts that the rival vaudeville managers produce for sensation glutted New York are sent promptly out into the country. The Trail of the Tenderloin is over the little producers, too.

Since the introduction of the "Salome Dance" in the first-class theatres, New York, Pittsburgh and all the large cities, every burlesque show on the road has revived the indecent "Hootchie-Kootchie," which is one and the same thing.

Big Developments Promised.

It reports are true Greene county is to get a new railroad this season. It is stated that the J. V. Thompson interests have chartered a company to build a new railroad from Wheeling to Uniontown. This is the line surveyed by the Gould interests, when the latter were seeking to extend the Wabash to the Atlantic coast, but were obliged to abandon the project on account of financial embarrassment.

This last move does not look as though the recently reported big sales of coal lands in Greene county to the independent steel manufacturers will retard developments in that county. When the sales were first reported, it was the general belief that the coal was bought to hold for future supply, and that development would be held up indefinitely. The building of the new line, however, will mean that Greene county is destined to witness some big coal developments in the near future.

Should Come This Way.

Now that the county commissioners have decided to construct eight or ten miles of county roads this season, and have issued $100,000 in bonds, to pay for the same, those most interested should see to it that some of the new construction is made along the river front if possible, where it is urgently needed. A part of this new construction, at least, should come this way.

The special bonds now issued aggregate over half a million dollars. This is an immense sum for the county to assume, and it is probable that as soon as the sections of roads approved by the grand jury are completed further work by the county will be done under the Sproul law, by which the State assumes a part of the expense and repairs. It would have been a lot better for the taxpayers had this been done at the start, as the county roads now built could come in for a prorata share of money devoted to repairs. It was a mistake to introduce the Flinn road system in the county in the first place.

Electric Sparks.

From the interest that is being shown in the Marathon to be held in Charleroi, it is more than evident that the contagion has spread to this section for the race.

Well, that was done by the people to a great extent last spring and fall.

The first thing that greets the eyes of a stranger alighting from the train at Cold Spring, a village resting snugly in the highlands of the Hudson, is Washington's spring, inclosed by three bowlders in the rough, which, as one approaches, are seen to contain a tiny pool of sparkling water. An inscription in relief upon the bronze plate announces that "General George Washington, in frequent visits to the American troops encamped near by during the war of the Revolution, drank of this spring and gave it its name, Cold Spring."

The encampments referred to were principally upon the famous Constitution island, just below, to which was attached one end of the great chain which was stretched across the river to West Point and checked navigation by the British warships during the Revolution.

Her Awful Sin.

"I felt so sorry for poor Satan and wanted to give him a little comfort. So I got a glass of cold water and poured it down a little hole in the kitchen floor."

Nietzsche and the invalid. An invalid lady who often met Nietzsche found him the gentlest, kindest and most sympathetic of men. He "implored her with tears in his eyes not to read his books." Such was his knowledge of women that he was thunderstruck to find shortly afterward that the lady at once proceeded to read them all. He was further surprised by the discovery that, having read them, she was utterly unmoved by the philosopher's unanswerable demonstrations that feeble persons like herself had no right to live and that women were distinguished by this, that and the other objectionable attribute. It must have been a blow to him.—London News.

He Was Not Superstitious. A captain of an ocean liner tells the following story: Coming from the old country was a very nervous old lady who complained that she was sure there was a rat in her stateroom. "Keep it there, madam," said the captain. "But do you like rats?" asked she. "I've got a nest in my cabin," retorted the brusque seaman, "and I never disturb them. When they leave the ship I do." "Why, you must be superstitious," urged the dame. "No, ma'am," wound up the captain. "I'm not, but the rats are."

POLITICIANS AT COUNTY SEAT ARE MUCH DISTURBED

Elements That Seek to Control J. K. Tener's Appointment Disappointed.

REFUSES TO BE A BOSS

Places He Has Already Filled Are in the Interests of Public Service.

Notwithstanding there is only one office of importance to contest for in the Republican nominations in the county at the primary election in June, that of county recorder, the proverbial political pot is boiling fiercely at the county seat. It is not so much the result of the coming campaign that concerns the Washington politicians, as it is what may come later. Those who have been accustomed to having a finger in manipulating political affairs, naming slates and parceling out party patronage are, figuratively speaking, "up in the air." They want to be in the push and control things all right, but under present conditions they find themselves utterly powerless, and all attempts at getting a hand and fast "organization" has met with failure. Various combinations have been proposed and tried, but without avail. Those who want to make the nominations have nothing to offer in the way of patronage, and this is what makes them extremely sad.

In the good old palmy days, when E. F. Acheson was in the saddle, with all the postoffices and census enumerators to give out, with a few appointments at Washington and Harrisburg on the side and no troublesome primaries with a popular vote for the people to "butt in," it was a pleasure to play the political game. But now things are different. There isn't any "organization," and what's more there isn't likely to be one, except the formal and perfunctory party organization each year for the purpose of conducting the campaign which dissolves as soon as the ballots are cast. But now, with Hon. J. K. Tener in Congress, and with all the appointive power in his own hands, the condition is really aggravating. Mr. Tener has resolutely refused to play ward politics.

More than that what few appointments he has already made have been in the interest of public service and in accordance with the wish of a majority of the people directly concerned. He refuses to play appointments against the personal ambitions of the ward politicians, and consequently there is sorrow in camp.

A desperate effort has been made to use the contest for recorder for personal ends. The different candidates for the Republican nominations have been worked upon, but without results. Each one is exceedingly wary of entering into proffered deals for support, knowing full well that it is not within the power of any person or faction to "deliver the goods." The real bone of contention is said to be the postoffice at Washington and the appointment to the controllership of the county, in case the bill providing for such an office now before the Legislature, becomes a law. This is why there is so much wire-pulling at the present time, but the indications are that there will be "nothing doing."

by those who are particularly desirous of dispensing this patronage.

As for the nomination for recorder, the respective candidates for that position know full well that they must fight it out on their own merits, and that no deals can be made that will materially aid them. Congressman J. K. Tener is impervious to any of the appeals or threats made to compel him to use his appointments for these know also, that the people are with him, and that any attempt to put up a fight would meet with summary defeat.

HOUSE BLOWN OVER HILL AND IS MASS OF RUINS

Brownsville Structure Could Not Withstand Wind and Totters Over Proclivity.

FAMILY LOSES GOODS

A two story frame house near Green Lane, South Brownsville was destroyed yesterday afternoon by being blown from its foundations and tottering over a steep embankment. The house is now a mass of ruins.

The building was occupied by the family of James Carpenter. During the afternoon gale it was lifted and taken by the wind to the edge of the declivity where it was hurled over, falling a distance of 25 feet. The loss is not great as the house was an old one. The furnishings will be a complete loss however. It so happened that none of the Carpenter family were in the place at the time and thus escaped.

LOOKING FOR MISSING MAN

The brothers and family are anxious to learn of his whereabouts. They are seeking the aid of the police in the different towns visited.

BONDS ISSUED FOR $100,000

Extensive Improvements Will be Made this Year by the County, And Money is Needed.

TOTAL 6 YEARS $520,000

The county road improvement is to go ahead this year. The commissioners have just sold $100,000 four per cent road improvement bonds to the N. W. Harris company, of New York. As this company must pay the State tax of four mills the bonds will yield their holders three and six-tenths per cent net.

With the proceeds of these bonds the commissioners will build a number of roads which have been approved by the grand jury and the court. These roads will be selected soon.

This is the third bond of commissioners in succession which has issued road bonds under the provisions of the Act of 189 and amendments thereto which permit commissioners to issue bonds to the amount of one-tenth of one per cent of the total valuation of property taxable for county purposes.

The amount of bonds issued each year is as follows:

In 1904, $30,000; 1905, $30,000; 1906, $50,000; 1907, $100,000; 1908, $100,000; 1909, $100,000; total $520,000.

With the money secured from previous bonds issued the county has made a good start in improving roads. About eight miles of road can be built with the proceeds of the new issue. It is expected that this is a good time to start, as many of the firms who have been bidding to do the work have not yet been heard from.

IT HAPPENED YESTERDAY

C. S. Gottshalk, of Monongahela, a lineman employed by the Bell Telephone company here yesterday, received a shock of 2,300 volts of electricity, enough to kill most men, but outside of a number of burns over the body he is feeling as well as ever today.

The accident happened at the corner of Fourth street and Fallowfield avenue, where Gottshalk was repairing some lines that had become crossed with the West Penn company lines. In some way he happened to grasp the West Penn line, establishing a circuit, and received the full force of the West Penn current, 2,300 volts. He hung on to his place like grim death, and was finally rescued. His legs and arms were burned over a large surface.

These flowers of whatever nature will be used to decorate the church and the entire spirit of the service will be the hope of the resurrection as typified at this Easter season.

Little Child Has A Narrow Escape

Mother Sees Clothing Afire and Extinguishes Flames Before Harm is Done.

Velma, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. L. of Fallowfield

CONFLAGRATION THIS MORNING AT MONONGAHELA

House Valued at $4,000 Is Totally Destroyed by Destructive Fire

WAS PARTIALLY INSURED

A two story frame house at the corner of Main and Wame streets, Monongahela, valued at $4,000, was totally destroyed by fire this morning, shortly after midnight. The place was covered partially by insurance $2,500 being carried. The owner was Andrew Subulka. The flames were not discovered until after they had gained considerable headway, and there was no chance of saving the building. Some of the goods of the inmates were recovered. The origin is unknown.

FIRE CATCHES FROM SPARKS

Engine on M. & W. Branch Causes Conflagration at Scenery Hill.

Sparks from a passing engine on the Monongahela and Washington railroad yesterday set fire to a pile of brush about two miles from Scenery Hill and before the fire could be extinguished had reached the tall grass surrounding the Iams farm, owned by the Ellsworth Collieries company.

Twenty acres of finely wooded property was destroyed before the flames had spent themselves. The fact that the fire reached a plowed field saved the farm house of Thomas Van Voorhis. It is thought that the loss of lumber and fence will amount to several thousand dollars.

Trolley Company Suffers From Breaking Down Of Line.

PEOPLE ARE INJURED

Wind in Exceptional Cases Tosses

Up Persons and Carries Them Distance.

Western Pennsylvania was at the mercy of the winds yesterday, and trolley, telephone, and telegraph lines suffered, causing the people much inconvenience. In Pittsburgh and other larger cities several people were hurt in various ways caused indirectly from the wind, and the terrific hurricane. In exceptional cases, persons were picked up, carried a short distance, and severely injured by the drop.

CharleROI people suffered most from the inconvenience caused by damage to the Pittsburgh-CharleROI trolley line. From about noon until after 6 o'clock cars could not run on schedule time, owing to the high tension wires coming down, and breaks in the line. During the afternoon there were five breaks in the high tension line, the first one being at 12:05, and continuing until 12:15, the second from 1:47 until 2:00, the third from 3:10 to 3:20, the fourth from 3:40 until 3:50, and the fifth from 4:15 until 5:55. All these breaks were in the main line and near the power house at Rankin.

From 4:15 until 6:45 there was extra trouble on this end, between Riverview and Library. A line was grounded during that time at Finleyville, and it was impossible to run the wires were greatly weakened by the wind, and this morning more breaks occurred. At Eldora a break held the cars for sometime. There was practically no service from 5:30 until 8 o'clock this morning.

The CharleROI Telephone lines were blown down along the valley and connection was severed with Brownsville, California and Pittsburgh, and practically all valley towns.

With the Bell company the effect of the high winds was that connection was practically severed with nearly all valley points. The time of the breaking of the wires was about noon.

The West Penn electric company withstood the shock, as regards their individual wires, but they suffered more or less interference all over the system by the falling of lighter wires on their heavier ones, and this caused the lack of schedule time in the running of the West Side cars.

ASSIST MONESSEN LODGE

Endorsed by The People.

Congressman J. K. Tener's policy of making politician appointments in the interest of the public service will be most heartily endorsed by the people who so overwhelmingly elected him. From the time of his induction into office Mr. Tener has announced that all appointments within his jurisdiction would be made with a view of satisfying a majority of the people who are directly concerned. In carrying out this policy he cannot go wrong with his constituents. He may not satisfy all of the ward politicians who want to control this patronage for their own ends, but he is fulfilling the true mission of his office by seeking to serve the people instead of the petty politicians.

With the popular vote at the primary election it is no longer possible to build up an organization in Washington county that can dictate party affairs, slate candidates and elect them. Those who are trying to do that do not realize that they are in the "has been" class. They are typical of the old hounbons of France—
"have learned nothing, and forgotten nothing." Bossism has received its death blow in this county, and all attempts to revive it are doomed to ignominious failure. The people rue now.

Indecent Drama.

It is because there is in New York
a large public ready for decadent drama—that certain theatrical managers, themselves living solely in the bohouse atmosphere of the Tenderloin, are so ready and willing to furnish such fare, writes Walter Pritchard Reed in Success Magazine. And since the control of almost all the theatres
in the country is now vested in these New York managers, since the local theatre managers are but janitors, having to take whatever plays are sent them from New York.

Tenderloin producers are awarded the best bookings on the road, and the salacious acts that the rival vaudeville managers produce for sensation
in the New York are sent promptly out into the country. The Trail of worst

the Tenderloin is over the little producers, too.

Since the introduction of the "Salome Dance" in the first-class theatres,
New York, Pittsburgh and all the large cities, vaudeville shows on the road has revived the indecent
"Hootchie-Kootchie," which is one and the same thing.

Big Developments Promised.

If reports are true Greene county is to get a new railroad this season. It is stated that the J. V. Thompson interests have chartered a company to build a new railroad from Wheeling to Uniontown. This is the line surveyed by the Gould interests, when the latter were seeking to extend the Wabash to the Atlantic coast, but were obliged to abandon the project on account of financial embarrassment.

This last move does not look as though the recently reported big sales of coal lands in Greene county to the independent steel manufacturers county. When the sales were first reported, it was the general belief that the coal was bought to hold for future supply, and that development would be held up indefinitely. The building of the new line, however,
will mean that Greene county is destined to witness some big coal developments in the near future.

Should Come This Way.

Now that the county commissioners have decided to construct eight or ten miles of county roads this season, and have issued $100,000 in bonds to pay for the same, those most interested should see to it that some of the new construction is made along the river front if possible, where it is urgently needed. A part of this new construction, at least, should come this way.

The special bonds now issued aggregate over half a million dollars. This is an immense sum for the county to assume, and it is probable that as soon as the sections of roads approved by the grand jury are completed further work by the county will be done under the Sproul law, by which the State assumes a part of the expense and repairs. It would have been a lot better for the taxpayers had this been done at the start, as the county roads now built could come in for a prorata share of money devoted to repairs. It was a mistake to introduce the Flinn road system in the county in the first place.

Electric Sparks.

From the interest that is being shown in the Marathon to be held in Charleroi, it is more than evident that the contagion has spread to this section for the race.

Now that we're sure it's spring we can go ahead in the old trodden paths.
But let all manner of poets beware.

The Washington Record's party of girls have been creating a furore in staid (?) old New York. Oh, no wonder with such a beautiful bunch.

Boys will be boys it is true, but that doesn't necessarily mean that they have to steal and break up property.

Did you notice the Mail's new dress? How'd you like it? It's the latest style. Wait until you see the Mirror.

Talking about the milky way somehow reminds a fellow of breakfast.

Baseball will soon take the place of the spring poet and top season, and we can take up our last year's megaphones.

Editor Likins of the Peoples' Tribune of Fayette County, who had a hand in the cleaning out of the county jail there, lectured at Washington, Pa. the other night, and told the people that the affairs in this county are as bad as they were in Fayette, and then suggests that some one gets busy and clean them up. Well, that was done by the people to a great extent last spring and fall.

The cartoons of the Ex-president at Messina, show him going over ground
at a tremendous rate, and the king and queen hopping along in the rear, mustering all the speed possible. Now even in his vacation.

From all indications Monongahela is going to get religious. First thing we know they will try it on Mon-gahela. Question: Which is the worst?

FOR RECORDER

J. C. SUTHERLAND

Primaries, Saturday, June 5.

Washington's Spring.
The first thing that greets the eyes
at Cold Spring, a village resting snugly
in the highlands of the Hudson, is Washington's spring, inclosed by three bowlders in the rough, which, as one approaches, are seen to contain a tiny pool of sparkling water. An inscription in relief upon the bronze plate announces that "General George Washington, in frequent visits to the American troops encamped near by during the war of the Revolution, drank of this spring and gave it its name, Cold spring."

The encampments referred to were principally upon the famous Constitution island, just below, to which was attached one end of the great chain
which was stretched across the river to West Point and checked navigation
by the British warships during the Revolution.

Her Awful Sin.

A little girl of six once went in great distress to her mother, saying that she had committed a sin which could never be forgiven and which was too bad to be repeated. By dint of a little coaxing she was induced to make a full confession, which was in this wise:

"I felt so sorry for poor Satan and wanted to give him a little comfort.
So I got a glass of cold water and poured it down a little hole in the kitchen floor."

Discourteous.
At a game of "definitions" a discourteous was justly defined once by defining woman as "a creature that was made after man and has been after him ever since."

Her Exact Age.
"How old is Belle?"
"Twenty-four her last six birthdays."

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound

Vienna, W. Va. — "I feel that I owe

the last ten years of my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Eleven years ago I was a walking shadow. I had been under the doctor's care but got no relief. My husband persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like a charm. It relieved all my pains and misery. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. EDNA
WHEATON, Vienna, W. Va.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors,
irregularities, periodic pains, backache,
indigestion and nervous prostration.
Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.
If you would like special advice
about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free,

The Easter Clothes Show

THE man, young or old, who allows Easter to pass by without a thought of his clothing, is lost.
That may be putting it too forcefully. At any rate the joyous Eastertide is the season when men add little touches to their raiment.

Generally, Easter means a new suit and a complete new outfit.

If such is your intention, we invite you personally to attend our showing of fine exclusive, Michaels-Stern Easter Suits. They constitute without any exception, the finest

ACTUAL STARVATION

Gives Facts Regarding Dyspepsia

Although indigestion and Dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

Dieting cannot cure Dyspepsia. If we refuse every article of food that disagrees with us, before long we have nothing left, and find ourselves chronic dyspeptics.

We can cure Dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee a cure and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promise and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here in Charleroi, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want everyone in Charleroi who is troubled with 'Indigestion' or 'Dyspepsia' in any form to come up our store and get a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. They are very pleasant to take; they soothe the irritable stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, promote a healthy and natural bowel action, immediately relieve nausea and all stomach irritation, produce perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation and promote nutrition.

A 35c. package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases, this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two large sizes which sell for 45c. and 89c. John W. Carroll, Charleroi, Pa.

HE READ HIS MAN.

Lincoln's Rebuke to a Visitor Who Would Not Meet His Gaze.

As I came up to the railing in front of the president he was reading a paper that had just been presented to him by a man who sat in the chair opposite him and who seemed by his restlessness and unsteady eyes to be of a nervous disposition or under great excitement.

Mr. Lincoln, still holding the paper up and without movement of any kind, paused and, raising his eyes, looked for a long time at this man's face and seemed to be looking down into his very soul. Then, resuming his reading for a few moments, he again paused and cast the same piercing look upon his visitor.

Suddenly, without warning, he dropped the paper, and, stretching out his long arm, he pointed his finger directly in the face of his vis-a-vis and said, "What's the matter with you?"

The man stammered and finally replied, "Nothing."

"Yes, there is," said Lincoln. "You can't look me in the face! You have not looked me in the face since you sat there! Even now you are looking out that window and cannot look me in the eye!"

Then, placing the paper in the man's lap, he cried: "Take it back! There is something wrong about this! I will have nothing to do with it!" And the discomfited individual retired.—T. B. Bancroft in McClure's Magazine.

ORIENTAL PARAGONS.

Japan's Four and Twenty Models of Filial Piety.

Filial piety, as is well known, is the special virtue of China and Japan. From it springs loyalty to the emperor, who is regarded as "the father and mother of his people." There are no greater favorites with the Japanese than the "four and twenty paragons of filial piety," whose acts of virtue are the subjects of Chinese legend.

One of the paragons was a cruel stepmother, who was very fond of fish. Never repining at her cruel treatment of him, he lay down on the frozen surface of a lake. The warmth of his body melted a hole in the ice, at which two carp came up to breathe. These he caught and took home to his stepmother.

Another paragon, who was of the female sex, clung to the jaws of a tiger that was about to devour her father until the latter escaped.

The drollest of all these stories is that of Morashi. This paragon, though seventy years old, used to dress in baby's clothes and crawl about on the floor, his object being to delude his parents, who were really over ninety years of age, into the idea that he could not be so very old, after all.

FARMERS FAVOR PROJECT

Consider That Trolley Line Connecting County Seats Would be Great Thing.

The project which will likely be carried out to build a trolley line between Washington and Waynesburg, which would in reality connect Charleroi by trolley with the latter place is meeting with favor among the farmers of this and Greene county. The line, in case it is extended, will be connected up with West Brownsville and Brownsville.

Nietzsche and the Invalid.

An invalid lady who often met Nietzsche found him the gentlest, kindest and most sympathetic of men. He "implored her with tears in his eyes not to read his books." Such was his knowledge of women that he was thunderstruck to find shortly afterward that the lady at once proceeded to read them all. He was further stunned by the discovery that, having read them, she was utterly unmoved by the philosopher's unanswerable demonstrations that feeble persons like herself had no right to live and that women were distinguished by this, that and the other objectionable attribute. It must have been a blow to him.—London News.

He Was Not Superstitious.

A captain of an ocean liner tells the following story: Coming from the old country was a very nervous old lady who complained that she was sure there was a rat in her stateroom. "Keep it there, madam," said the captain. "But do you like rats?" asked she. "I've got a nest in my cabin," retorted the brusque seaman, "and I never disturb them. When they leave the ship I do." "Why, you must be superstitious," urged the dame. "No, ma'am," wound up the captain. "I'm not, but the rats are."
